

A Few Port Studies

Studies sponsored by the North Carolina State Ports Authority

Moffatt & Nichol, Facility Analysis of Pfizer Property for Development of North Carolina International Port (2005)	$19,060
Martin Associates, Economic Impact Study of the North Carolina State Ports Authority (2006)	$40,000
CH2M Hill, Inc., North Carolina International Terminal Pro Forma Business Plan (and related reports) (2008)	$5,879,294
Martin Associates, The Projected Economic Impacts of the North Carolina International Terminal (2008)	$18,000
Public Financial Management, Inc., Discussion of Public-Private Partnerships and Review of Financing Approaches NC International Terminal	$10,000
Moffatt & Nichol, Market Analysis (2009)	$10,000
Moffatt & Nichol, Ports of Wilmington & Morehead City Feasibility Study (2010)	$117,871
TEC Inc. /PF Richardson Associates, North Carolina International Terminal Review of Planning Concepts and Privatization Options , (2010)	$258,702
Institute of Transportation Research and Education, Economic Contribution of North Carolina Ports (2011)	$145,686
Moffatt & Nichol, NCSPA Business Case Project (2011)	$395,912
	$6,894,519

Studies sponsored by the North Carolina Department of Transportation

Institute of Transportation Research and Education, Seven Portals Study (due in 2011)
AECOM/URS, Maritime Strategy Study (to be completed in 2012)	$2,000,000 (estimated)

Studies sponsored by the North Carolina Department of Environment and Natural Resources

US Army Corps of Engineers, Wilmington District, Wilmington Harbor Improvement Project (not yet funded--due for completion in 2016)	$10,100,000 (estimated)
--	--------------------------